BMPC is losing one of our “Board Members at Large” Ed Gustamante. He and Sharon are moving to the Boise area. Best wishes to them.

We will need a replacement if interested let Jerry know. Duties as follows;

The two board members at large will vote on an equal basis with the other elected officers on all matters brought before the board. They will work together and/ or choose which committees they are best suited for overseeing.

Field Trip Committee

The field trip committee provide the club with locations of interest to the membership for regular photo outings. They may keep in contact with other clubs for planned joint field trips.

Public Displays

The chairpersons of public displays will work as the liaison between the members hanging their work and the business people. Monitor the display occasionally to make sure the work is displayed in the best manner possible. The chairpersons will also calendar and supervise the changing of the display. The BMPC name should be showing somewhere on the display.

EID & Print Competition

Chairpersons

The Chairpersons will strive to secure the best possible images, to represent the BMPC in monthly competitions; for keeping accurate records during the competition year, for informing the makers of scores and status and for reporting results of competitions to the editor of club newsletter.

Membership Committee/PR

The membership committee will endeavor to secure new members for the club and to acquaint new members with the working of the club.

Also if interested in any committees, we can always use help.

Question – Is the club membership interested in a picnic/photoshoot this summer? If so suggestions.

Reminder, if you are entering in the SE WA Fair entry forms are due Aug. 5th.

Also photo opportunities Friday and Sat evenings Musicians. 1st and Main in WW.

(recommend you take a lawn chair)
